

Danish Culture and Conversation

An introducing course offer about living in Denmark - for newcomers in KLYNGEN FRISKVIND (Højmark, Velling, Stauning, Dejbjerg and Lem St).

The course will be conducted in the area and is offered as a day and evening course. The lessons will be conducted in collaboration with experienced teachers from AOF in Ringkøbing-Skjern municipality.

The course is for you who recently came to Denmark but also for you who were in Denmark for longer but without having much knowledge about Denmark and Danish culture.

We will focus on Danish conversation and Danish culture – useful at home, at work, in your spare time and everywhere you meet people. The course can also be the starting point of another course at a higher level.

You will have a voice in the decisions about topics of the course, so you learn what you need.

The lessons will take place in KLYNGEN FRISKVIND's area near the course participants' residence. The course time will be adjusted, so as many as possible get an opportunity to join.

Here you will have an opportunity to build/enhance your social network, get inspiration to join the local association activities and to hear about other local opportunities/offers.

The course consists of 20 lessons split over 10 times. Every time consists of 1 hour and 40 min course and a 10 min break.

Total price for 10 courses (20 lessons) is 720 DKK.

We hope you find the course interesting and that we will see you soon!

On behalf of,

The new joiner group in FRISKVIND collaboration
